Family Focus

Welcome to Sunset on this beautiful Sunday morning! What we are engaged in this morning is an activity we will continue to be engaged in throughout all of eternity . the worship of our Holy God.

Many of our young people participated in Bison Days+ at Harding University this weekend. Thanks to all who helped get them there and home safely! Also, did you know that some of our Sunset young people were selected to the South Central Missouri Music Educators Association? Congratulations to Parker Samuel (tuba) from Logan-Rogersville and to Samuel Wylly (trombone) from Central. Mark Rollins's son, Taylor, was also selected. He plays alto saxophone and attends New Covenant.

Tonight, as we always do on 5th Sundays, we will be singing praises to God as we are led by several men in the congregation. Plan to be back tonight for this singing!

Have a great week . . .

Joe

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

It's another beautiful morning in the Ozarks! I'm so glad you're here to worship with us. Lately I've been challenging you to pray with your families during the week days. I'm still really curious what your experiences have been like! I've heard from one family but I want to hear from more of you!! If you haven't prayed with your family yet please do it this week. Most of the spiritual growth of your children comes from home! Think about it, all that we do in class and during youth group activities can either be undone or affirmed in a matter of minutes by the examples they see from parents at home! Pray together, and let me know how it goes! Have a great week!!

Getting To Know You

Jerry and Glenda Potter were both born and raised right here in Springfield. They both graduated from Central High School and are retired.

Jerry likes old cars and football . . . particularly when the Chicago Bears are playing. Glenda likes visiting with family and friends and spending time with her grandchildren.

Glenda and Jerry had three sons, Jerry (52), Scott (44), and Steven who passed away in 1973 at age 10. Both of their sons live in Oklahoma so other than trips to the lake the Potters really like to visit Oklahoma and their 6 grandchildren.

Jerry and Glenda are active workers in the Food Pantry Ministry. They attend 1st service and usually sit at the front of the east overflow section.

Remember to Pick Yours Up

Dwight says it doesn't bother him when a member checks their watch during his sermon . . . unless they then tap it and hold it to their ear.

A Hint of Humor
