FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Isaiah 41:13 (CSB) says, "For I am the Lord your God, who holds your right hand, who says to you, 'Do not fear, I will help you.'" What a blessing it is to come and worship our gracious God!

We have come to Matthew 21:18-22 in our sermon series, where we are traveling with Jesus during the final days of his earthly life. Our passage today, in my opinion, is among the strangest in the gospels. In this text, Jesus finds a fruitless fig tree, curses it, and it withers. Mark tells us that it was not the season for figs, so how could Jesus be so upset with this tree? Why didn't he cause it to be fruitful instead of cursing it? Perhaps there is more to this story than meets the eye. Maybe this text is not really about figs at all, but about the kind of fruitlessness that Jesus saw in Jerusalem. As we meditate on this passage together, may God open our hearts to receive his word humbly.

I love you all,
 Phillip
