FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Let these words of David call you to worship today: "Blessed be the Lord! Day after day he bears our burdens; God is our salvation" (Psalm 68:19, CSB).

Some passages of Scripture are easy to skip over. You know the ones I'm talking about—the genealogies, the census information, and personal greetings. If you're like most of us, you may be tempted to skip over those verses to "get to the good stuff." However, as Christians, we affirm that all of Scripture is inspired by God—even the parts that seem less exciting to us. God speaks to us through all of Scripture, so we should carefully listen to every word. As we wind down our study in Romans, we have come to one of those often-neglected passages in Romans 16. At first glance, this is just a list of names that does not seem to have real-life application. However, when we look a little closer and maybe even read between the lines, we can see that this was not merely a list of names. To Paul, this list meant the world to him. Romans 16:3-16 reminds us how much we need the church to be who God wants us to be. May our hearts be receptive to what God seeks to teach us this morning!

I love you all,
 Phillip
