FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Psalm 59:16 (CSB) so wonderfully says, "I will sing of your strength and will joyfully proclaim your faithful love in the morning. For you have been a stronghold for me, a refuge in my day of trouble." What a blessing it is to worship God this Lord's Day!

Sunset's Trunk or Treat was yesterday afternoon, and it was AWESOME! So many families from our surrounding community were here to enjoy the sights, sounds, and (mostly) candy of this annual event. The ultimate goal of every community event is to show Jesus's compassion and tell others how they can come to know His saving love. Thank you to Jody Chainey and his selfless volunteers who made this event a success!

This morning's sermon text is Romans 14. In this passage, Paul guides us to maintain unity in the church despite our diversity. Just think about this for a moment: Here at Sunset, we have nearly 500 people in attendance each Sunday, and each of us are different in so many ways. We have different tastes, preferences, backgrounds, opinions, and viewpoints. How in the world can we live up to God's call to be unified despite our differences? How should we handle disagreements when they arise? These are difficult things to do! However, when we follow Paul's guidance by the power and wisdom of the Spirit, we can be the unified church God desires for us to be.

I love you all,
Phillip
