SERMON SNAPSHOT

Good morning and welcome to Sunset!

We are thankful that you are here this morning to worship with our Sunset family. We are just finishing what historically is one of the busiest months of the year. The month of May always involves so many end-of-school activities and graduations and parties of celebration, that it seems there is something on the calendar every weekend. Our immediate family alone, celebrates four birthdays and one anniversary during this month.

With all of this busyness, does it sometimes leave you longing for some peaceful days? When we think of peaceful days, we may just be thinking about days with no appointments or activities. As we continue our look at the psalms this morning, we're going to focus on Psalm 4, where David talks about finding true peace.

Phillip did an outstanding job last Sunday looking at Psalm 51. We looked at how godly sorrow can lead to repentance. True repentance can then lead to true peace. Our psalm today, Psalm 4 begins as a personal lament and then transitions into a psalm showing confidence and trust in God.

The apostle John describes peace of mind and heart as a gift. It is a gift that you can receive this morning. It is a gift that no one can take from you. It is a gift that God wants to bless you with today.

Love to all,
Dwight
