FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Hebrews 4:16 (CSB) says, "Therefore, let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in time of need." All of us need God's mercy and grace. May we experience God's blessings today as we gather for worship!

"Asking questions is the key to understanding." –John Piper. Do you agree with that quote? I do! Asking questions is how we learn, grow, and expand our understanding. A wise person isn't satisfied with their current level of understanding, so they continue learning by asking questions. I mention this to highlight that Jesus asked a lot of questions. He seemingly did this not for his own understanding but to encourage others to think and grow. In fact, throughout the four gospels, Jesus asked over 300 questions! In my Bible, that amounts to about two questions per page. Another interesting fact is that Jesus was asked about 180 questions in the gospels. Can you guess how many of those he directly answered? Three. That's right, just three. In our passage today, questions are flying all over the place. Several questions designed to challenge Jesus are posed, and then Jesus has several questions of his own for his opponents. The questions Jesus asks provide us insight into the identity of the Messiah. May our hearts receive the word this morning!

I love you all,

Phillip
