FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Let these words call you to worship this morning: "After this I looked, and there was a vast multitude from every nation, tribe, people, and language, which no one could number, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes with palm branches in their hands.

And they cried out in a loud voice: 'Salvation belongs to our God, who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!'" (Revelation 7:9-10, CSB)

If things feel a little emptier this morning, it's because over 50 of our women are attending Sunset's annual SPARK retreat in Branson! This year, 165 women from 41 different congregations registered—an incredible testament to the wide-reaching impact of this event. SPARK is the result of a year's worth of dedication from the 10 members of the SPARK committee. Let's pray their weekend has been filled with meaningful connections—with God and with one another!

This morning's sermon will focus on the danger of being controlled by fear and explore practical ways to overcome it with faith. May God strengthen and encourage us through His Word!

I love you all,
Phillip
