FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Whatever difficulties you've experienced this past week, I pray that being among God and His people today revives, refreshes, and renews you.

This Sunday we're kicking off a new sermon series called Revive Us Again: Nehemiah and the Path to Spiritual Renewal. Over the next few weeks, we'll be walking through the story of Nehemiah—a man whose heart broke for what was broken, and who turned to God in prayer before doing anything else.

Nehemiah isn't just about rebuilding walls; it's about what happens when God rebuilds hearts. It's about spiritual renewal—how it starts, what it looks like, and how we can respond when God stirs something fresh in us.

This week, we're starting with chapter 1. Nehemiah hears some devastating news, and instead of rushing to fix things, he breaks down and prays. This is a reminder that revival starts with a broken heart—one that feels the weight of sin and longs for God to move.

I'm really looking forward to what God might do in us through this series. Come with an open heart and expect Him to do something powerful!

I love you all,
Phillip
