FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Maybe your soul needs to hear these words as we come together to worship today: "Why, my soul, are you so dejected? Why are you in such turmoil? Put your hope in God, for I will still praise him, my Savior and my God" (Psalm 42:11, CSB).

Today marks our 16th week in the book of Exodus, and we are only to chapter 20! Don't worry, though. After this week, we will pick up the pace and look to finish this series in July. This morning, we will read about Israel receiving the Ten Commandments and reflect on why we, as followers of Jesus, should be serious about keeping God's commands. Ultimately, his commands keep us from danger, reveal how to serve the God we love, and reveal our sinfulness. God giving the Ten Commandments to Israel after he saved them shows us that he saved his people for a purpose: To glorify and enjoy him by living holy lives of joyful obedience! May we all demonstrate love for our Savior through this kind of heart-level obedience!

I love you all,
Phillip
