FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Let David's words call you to worship this morning: "I will both lie down and sleep in peace, for you alone, Lord, make me live in safety" (Psalm 4:8, CSB). May our time in worship today renew our sense of peace and safety in the Lord!

We have made it to the portion of Exodus where Bible reading plans die: chapters 25-31. You know what I'm talking about. We set out to read through the Bible in a year, and we did pretty well until we got to the detailed list of tabernacle furnishings and dimensions at the end of Exodus. Sometimes, when reading the Bible, it's easy to get bogged down in some of the details that are difficult to understand, so we lose sight of the larger story being told. For instance, the tabernacle is about God being with his people. Those detailed instructions were necessary for Israel to understand because God coming to live with his people was a BIG deal. This morning, I want to show you how the theme of God being with his people, from Genesis to Revelation, is one of the themes woven throughout the Bible. I pray that as we learn to see the Bible as one unified story that finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ, we will have a greater understanding of the significance of the tabernacle, and the one who chose to tabernacle among us!

I love you all,
Phillip
