PRAYER CONCERNS

JUNE 16TH, 2024

- Lynette Gibby had outpatient kidney stone procedure last week. All went well.
- Leroy Davis has moved to Mercy Rm 6167.
- Monika Easterly received a good report from pathology. The tumor was contained – multiple lymph nodes showed no cancer.
- Jerry Mumford's son, Guy Mumford, was attacked by a pit bull Monday evening. He had his first of possibly three facial reconstruction surgeries Friday.
- Judy Jewell has been discharged from the hospital and is now home.
- Ken Stewart is at Quail Creek, Cedar 72, for rehab.
- Joe Ryan had an Upper GI endoscopy on Monday and received a good report. He'll still need to have this test yearly. His friend, Tasha Marple, does not yet have a diagnosis for the reason she is losing weight.

FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Galatians 6:2 describes a goal we should have as God's people: "Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." As we have come together for worship this morning, we should ask ourselves this question: "Who is someone that I can serve by lightening their load today?"

Happy Fathers' Day! Godly dads are such a blessing, and there are many of them here at Sunset. To all the fathers who have loved, led, instructed, and nurtured their kids, we want to honor you and tell you how much we appreciate your service to your family, church, and community. May God continue to bless you!

We have a couple more weeks in the book of Exodus. I pray our meditation on Israel's journey from Egypt to Sinai has been deeply impactful to your soul. This morning's text is in Exodus 32. When Israel gets impatient with Moses's absence, they break their covenant with God by worshipping an idol. This chapter describes why idols appeal to impatient, sinful human beings and how we can best guard against the temptation to direct our devotion away from the Lord!

I love you all,
 Phillip
