FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! 2 Corinthians 4:18 (CSB) says, "So we do not focus on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." Right now, I would venture to guess that some earthly stress is tugging at you. This passage reminds us to keep our focus heavenward, which is precisely why we have come together for worship today. May our time in worship redirect our thoughts away from the stress of this life and toward our eternal hope!

Today marks our 20th and final week in the book of Exodus. (Some of you may be happy about that!) Even though we have spent many weeks in this book, there are still important things we didn't have the time to unpack fully. I pray, however, that you have come to see God more clearly through our journey in Exodus. I pray you know more of his love, grace, and power as we have joined Israel on their journey out of Egypt. This morning's passage is Exodus 34:5-7, in which God proclaims his name to Moses and reveals some crucial things we need to understand about his character.

I love you all,
Phillip
