FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Psalm 42:1 says, "As the deer longs for flowing streams, so I long for you, God." May our worship today increase our thirst for God and his will!

Today marks the fourth and final sermon in the "What is a Disciple?" series. So far, we have explored how disciples die to themselves daily, how they increasingly become like Jesus, and how they are fully invested in the church's life. Today's characteristic of discipleship explores how disciples make disciples. In other words, when one becomes a Christian, they enlist in God's disciple-making mission. I know the word "evangelism" makes many of us uncomfortable, so my goal today is to provide you with highly practical and highly actionable teaching on sharing our faith in everyday conversations. May God continue to bless us as we extend his offer of grace to others!

Do you need someone to pray with you? Do you have questions about the Bible or God's will for your life? Please reach out to me, another minister, or one of our shepherds. We would love to help you!

I love you all,
Phillip
