FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Let these words of the prophet Joel call you to worship: "Even now—this is the Lord's declaration—turn to me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning. Tear your hearts, not just your clothes, and return to the Lord your God. For he is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in faithful love, and he relents from sending disaster" (Joel 2:12-13, CSB). May our time in worship today shape our hearts into what God desires them to be! Have you ever heard the term "scarcity mindset"? According to verywellmind.com, "A pervasive feeling of not having enough—whether that be time, money, connection—is also known as a scarcity mindset. Having a scarcity mindset can be a self-fulfilling prophecy because these beliefs make it difficult to move forward and may keep you stuck in scarcity." This feeling of not having enough seems to be a shared human experience and can lead to overwhelming anxiety and frustration. In our text today, Paul teaches us how to go from having a scarcity mindset to an abundance mindset as we learn to trust God's gracious provision!

I love you all,
Phillip
