FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! Psalm 27:14 (CSB) says, "Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart be courageous. Wait for the Lord." May our time of worship and fellowship with God's people give us a measure of strength and courage for the week ahead!

This weekend, we hosted nearly 70 couples who attended Trey and Lea Morgan's Stronger Marriage Workshop! The Morgans did an exceptional job of giving impactful and practical lessons on how our marriages can be more in line with what God intends for them to be. We are grateful for their kindness in traveling to be with us and for the incredible turnout we had!

This morning's sermon is from Romans 10:14-21. In this passage, Paul discusses the centrality of the good news of Jesus and the role God's people have in taking that news to others. He also talks about why some people may find this news offensive. The gospel's grace extends so far and wide that some, like the Jews of Paul's day, were offended and angered that those they deemed unworthy could be recipients of God's grace. This passage teaches us that God's good news is a message for all people, no matter who they are, what their background is, or what they've done. May God bless our time in his word!

I love you all,
 Phillip
