FAMILY FOCUS

Good morning, and welcome to Sunset! I recently came across an article by Brian Zahnd that centered my heart. This article was written before the election, but it is just as valuable to read post-election as we seek to bring God's truth and grace to a divided world. I wanted to share the article with you:

1. The political process, while necessary, has little to do with how God is saving the world.
2. The fate of the kingdom of God does not depend upon political contests.
3. Don't be naïve, political parties are more interested in Christian votes than they are in Christian values.
4. The bottom line for political parties is power. The bottom line for a Christian is love. And therein lies the rub.
5. While in pursuit of the Ring of Power, you are not permitted to abandon the Sermon on the Mount.
6. If your political passion makes it hard for you to love your neighbor as yourself, you need to turn it down a notch.
7. Your task is to bring the salt of Christian civility to an ugly and acrimonious political process.
8. To dismember the body of Christ over politics is a grievous sin.
9. Exercise your liberty to vote your conscience and conviction, while accepting that other Christians will do the same and vote differently than you.
10. It's more important that your soul be filled with love than it is for your political team to win the game."

I love you all,
 Phillip
